Hello, everyone!

I was very encouraged by the enthusiastic response to our conference call last Monday on the ins-and-outs of Writing a Successful Argument. As mentioned, you have 2 weeks to finish your argument.

As we mentioned in the conference call, the main goal of writing a successful Argument is to try to first choose which of the two sides of the argument (the Pro or Con) you personally agree with and then proceed to quote from the documents with analysis to show how this document concurs and lends credence to your opinion.

Under normal circumstances we usually spend many weeks in class developing this skill step by step. However due to the extremely unusual circumstances, we are forced to just forge ahead and do the best we can, "learning on the job."

The next Argument will be posted Monday after Shvuus.

Due to everything going on, I totally forgot in my earlier communications to wish a Happy and Healthy Birthday to those bochurim who turned 17 years old on or around Pesach:

Moshe Klein

Yehuda Zev Boiangiu

Meir Kipper

Yisroel Meir Greisman

Moshe Selengut

Yeshaya Perr

Also a Happy Birthday wish to Yitzchok Mosoev upon his 16th birthday.

As always, if you have any questions, feel free to call me between 4:00 – 10:00PM at 718-404-8422.

Wishing everyone a Gut Yom Tov.
